;; ; [Chinese shoes Network - brand observation According to foreign media reports professional, Adidas contract with the NBA officially abandoned. This means that after the end of next season, Adidas will no longer be the NBA's official equipment supply. In 2006, Adidas spent 400 million US dollars signed with the NBA, as its equipment supplier. While Adidas said they would continue and the NBA long-term cooperation, but the face of changing market, the German giant is still re-enact their own policy in the United States in 2012. It is said that in the last week to cooperate when bid bid NBA, Adidas seemed to give up the opportunity to renew the bid was significantly lower than other brands, including Nike and Under Armour.

Chirs Grancio general manager

Adidas global basketball operations, said the long-term cooperation with the NBA and not as increase brand influence and sales expected. Although he abandons the NBA, but Chirs Grancio said basketball business is still one of the core business of Adidas, the brand in this piece of business to obtain $ 1 billion in sales annually. Grancio also added that the next few years, the Group invested in the field of basketball will continue to increase. In addition to these funds continue to increase the number of contracted NBA players, the existing 70 to 140 players signed, it will also put a lot of high school and college leagues in the United States, with plans to move into four new designers, This used to improve the appearance of their own basketball products.

While Adidas's sales in the United States behind Nike, but Adidas CEO said the development of the North American market is still the Adidas global marketing strategy in key target.
